

February

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
Find a picture of an athlete in the sports section. Who is it? What sport does this person play? Why is this person in today's sports news?	Find five words that have more than one meaning. Example: date, fall, run, etc.	Cut out all the letters in your name and paste them lengthwise on a piece of paper. Use each letter to write a word about you.	Look at the ads in today's newspaper. With a marker or crayon, underline five persuasive words.	Find a national article in today's newspaper. What is it about? Find the location on the map or globe.
Find an international article in today's newspaper. What is it about? Find the country on the map or globe.	Find a local article in today's newspaper. What is it about? Find that place on a local map.	Find a funny comic in today's newspaper. Write a headline for the comic.	Find a national article in today's newspaper. What is it about? Find the location on the map or globe.	Happy Valentine's Day! Look for hearts in today's newspaper. How many can you find?
Look in the entertainment section for the movie listing. Find a movie that you would like to see.	Find the weather page. What are the high temperatures in Tokyo, Moscow and Jakarta today? What is the high temperature at home today? Subtract to find the difference?	You are in charge of preparing a time capsule for the future. Cut items from today's newspaper that you think will tell people in the future the most about our lives today.	Pick a page in the paper. With a colored marker or crayon, underline as many verbs as you can find.	Find the stock market page in today's newspaper. What is stock? Which stock gained the most? Which stock lost the most today?
Circle all the numbers you can find on the front page of today's newspaper. What kinds of numbers did you find? (Dates, time, ages, etc.)	Look through today's grocery ads. If you were in charge of cooking dinner tonight which foods would you pick for a yummy but nutritious meal? How much would it cost?	Imagine and draw a funny car. Write a short classified ad to sell it.	Find an article in the newspaper about a person of good character. What positive traits does this person have?	What are three things you would do if you were President? Look through the newspaper to get ideas.
In which section of the newspaper will you find your horoscope? What's your sign?	Look at the ads in today's newspaper. With a marker or crayon, underline five persuasive words.	Find five words that have more than one meaning. Example: date, fall, run, etc.	Cut out all the letters in your name and paste them lengthwise on a piece of paper. Use each letter to write a word about you.	 