

March

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
Dr. Seuss wrote stories with lots and lots of rhyming words. Look through today's newspaper and find rhyming words. Can you write a story or poem with them?	Search the newspaper for as many types of transportation as you can find. Don't forget to look in the classified ads too!	Look at the jobs listed in today's classified ads. Do you see one that looks interesting? Find out more about it.	Why is reading important? Look through the newspaper and find examples of things you could not do if you couldn't read.	Find a job in the classified section that lists the hourly wage. Calculate the weekly, monthly and annual earnings for this job.
Find a "Lost Pet" ad in the classified section. Make up a story about how the pet was lost. Write your story on a piece of paper and share it with your family.	Look at the weather page for the week's forecast. Find the average temperature for the week.	Find ten abbreviations in the classified section. Write down the meaning of each abbreviation.	Count the advertisements in today's newspaper. How many businesses offer a product for sale? How many offer a service?	Find an article in the sports section about a game that was played over the weekend. If you were the reporter, what are some of the questions you would have liked to ask the coach or players?
Today is St. Patrick's Day. Look through today's newspaper and find symbols for this holiday. How many symbols can you find? What are they?	Write a news article about someone you love and why this person is so special to you.	Identify cultural differences between other countries and ours by reading international articles and photographs. Make a list of differences by country.	Identify cultural similarities between other countries and ours by reading international articles and photographs. Make a list of similarities by country.	Read the movie reviews in today's newspaper. Write a review of a movie you have seen. Did you like it? Would you recommend it to others?
Read some letters to the editor. Which letters express the writer's point of view clearly? Why? Do you agree?	Rank each news item on the front page in order of importance. Why were these stories placed on the front page?	Find the crossword puzzle in today's newspaper. Can you make your own crossword puzzle?	Find an editorial cartoon in today's newspaper. Is it funny? Is it supposed to be? What is the message of the cartoon?	Look in the newspaper for an article about kids. Can kids make a difference?
Look through the TV listings for a show on tonight. Can you place the shows in categories? What category has the most shows? Which category do you like?	Cut out a few items from the newspaper. Give your family members clues to guess what they are.	Look at the jobs listed in today's classified ads. Do you see one that looks interesting? Find out more about it.	Search the newspaper for as many types of transportation as you can find. Don't forget to look in the classified ads too!	 