

May

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
May is Teacher Appreciation Month. Design a newspaper ad telling your teacher how much you appreciate him/her.	Ask one family member (or you) choose a favorite article each day and discuss it with the family.	Read about Cinco de Mayo. How would our country be different if Mexico had lost to the French?	Search the newspaper for examples of law in action. Did you find any laws that you would like to change?	Collect newspaper articles about the effects of storms on people and property. Make a storm book with your pictures.
Write a short essay about the importance of freedom of the press in a democratic society.	May is National Hamburger Month. Survey fifteen adults to find out their favorite spot to eat a hamburger. Chart your results.	Clip pictures of ten items from the newspaper that were not available ten years ago. Interview adults to find out what was used in place of each item that you clipped.	Use the TV guide to find science programs on T.V. Make a schedule of all science shows to watch.	Search the newspaper for twenty numbers that are multiples of 2. Clip and glue the multiples in order from smallest to largest.
Scan the newspaper and clip all the company logos you can find. Glue them on a sheet of paper. Next to each logo, write the full name of the company.	Shop the classified ads for a car costing less than $10,000. Write a description of your new car. Why did you make the choice you made?	BUCKLE UP! Look through the newspaper for things that we can do to stay safe! Make a class safety poster.	Interview your teacher about his/her life and work. Make a newspaper front page about your teacher with pictures and articles.	Look through the newspaper for articles about the military. Why is it so important to have a military?
Search the newspaper for Memorial Day sales. What do the items on sale say about the way we celebrate the holiday?	Design your own Memorial Day flag. Glue newspaper patriotic pictures and words to your flag.	May is Get Caught Reading Month. Make a poster of you and your friends reading. The purpose of this poster is to encourage younger children to read during the summer.		 